OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Student Body of Assumption College:

I welcome this opportunity to extend greetings to the student body of Assumption College and warmest congratulations to the members of the Class of 1996.

Assumption College strives to educate you in the traditions of Christianity and the liberal arts and to promote Christian living. We are a community of learning in the Catholic tradition and dedicated to the pursuit of truth wherever it is found. We are dedicated to the development of the whole person and concerned with your welfare, academically, spiritually, and personally.

It is my fervent hope that the time you have spent at Assumption has prepared you to meet the challenges that lie ahead. In a special way, it is my hope that the graduating Class of 1996 leaves Assumption better prepared to assume the responsibilities of citizenship and Christian living. The motto of the College - Until Christ Be Formed in You - is one I hope will remain with you throughout your lives as a reminder of our final destiny and of the source of all that is good.

Your education did not begin at Assumption, nor should it end with graduation. Likewise, I sincerely hope that for the graduating Class of 1996 this is the beginning of a long and joyful association with your Alma Mater. I welcome and look forward to your continued interest as alumni and alumnae.

May God grant all of you good health, happiness and success.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

Joseph H. Hagan

The O.J.

Faculty and Students gathered at the campus center to hear the O.J. verdict. No matter what the opinion, everyone waited anxiously for this long case to come to an end.

Verdict

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must-but don't you quit!

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up, though the pace seems slow,
You might succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than it seems to a faint and faltering man,
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup.
And he learned too late, when the night slipped down.
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out-
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt-
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit-
It's when things seem worst that you must not quit!

CLUBS & ORGANIZATIONS

Chorale

The Assumption College Chorale is made up of undergraduate students from all years and majors, the only required common denominator is the love of music. The group is lead by Dr. Graveline.

The Phoenix

The Phoenix is Assumption College's creative magazine where students submit their work (i.e. poems, prose, stories, and photographs) to the staff for printing. When the Phoenix staff meets, each member receives an anonymous copy of a submission and discusses whether or not it should be published. The 1995-1996 issue marks its 7th year in publication.

APICS

American Production and Inventory Control Society (APICS) is Assumption College's Business Club. APICS enables students to become more aware of what to expect in today's business world.

Senior Class Gift Committee

The senior class gift of granat marble tables and benches will be enjoyed for years to come. This was made possible by the Senior Class Gift Committee and the donations of students, parents, faculty, and alumni.

Peer Tutors

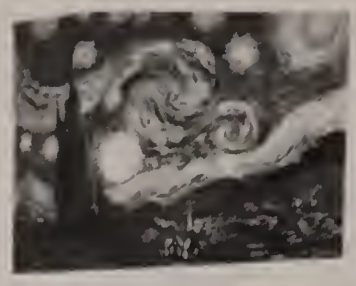

Peer Tutors help students in a variety of subjects. The tutoring sessions take place in the Academic Support Center.

P.E.A.C.E

The Peer Assistants keep the student body current on a variety of issues ranging from AIDS awareness to gambling.

The Waking

I wake to sleep, and take my waking slow.
I feel my fate in what I cannot fear.
I learn by going where I have to go.

We think by feeling. What is there to know?
I hear my being dance from ear to ear.
I wake to sleep, and take my waking slow.

Of those so close beside me, which are you?
God bless the Ground! I shall walk softly there,
And learn by going where I have to go?

It seems to me a crime that we should age;
These fragile times should never slip us by;
a time you never can or shall erase.

As friends together watch their childhood fly, making friends for the world to see,
Let the people know you got what you need.

With a friend at hand you will see the light;
If your friends are there, then everything's alright.

Ecclesiastes: 3.1-8.

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh, a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

SULLIVAN'S VIEWPOINT ARTICLE

Dear Assumption,
We came in June of '92
to catch our first glimpse of you.
Who could have thought that such a mix would compose a class called '96.
Friends were made and secrets kept sometimes we smiled, sometimes we wept.
Questions asked found a response and we developed different wants.
Of knowledge, God, and what to do we soon discovered what was true.
That deep inside, a person there who since that time was unaware of their own true purpose and who we are not just some face seen from afar.
But time moved fast and the days grew few and some wondered what to do.
When the last laugh made, we wander home will memories face when we're all alone?
With teary eyes and heavy hearts will we still talk once we depart?
Or does life move on, new days, new weeks pass on like waves on some distant beach.
Will we sit back and say "remember when?"
and try to recall names of old friends whose faces grow ever dim was her name "Beth" or was it "Kim"?
But this is not what will come to be not with friends like you and me who in some short time has grown to be as crucial as water to the sea.
Assumption is where my heart will stay when I have left and gone away.
Get up at eight and home by five with different jobs and different lives.
Will we still feel the same way then?
Or will we simply just pretend that the best is still yet to come (but the best has been, and now it's done).
And so my friends, I bid farewell.
What's next to come? Time will tell.
I thank you all for the time we've had no gift could ever hope to match.
The friendship you have given me is more I'd ever thought it'd be.
So in return, I wish you peace.
I wish you love and hope in these few weeks.
Until the time we meet again,
I'll think of you, signed your friend
Dave Sullivan.

Kerri-Ann O'Brien
Dear Kerri-Ann,

Congratulations for all you've accomplished. You're an inspiration for all of us. We love you, we're so proud of you, but above all happy for you. Full fill your dreams. We know you will.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Dianne Theresa Rivelli

We want everyone to know that you have been a teacher from the first day you were born. You have increased our vocabulary ten-fold. We could never have gotten through life without knowing the following words: Munchkins, Mopene, "perform," Smelly, After-thought, Dita, and Shmu.

We will always remember: Long Island, dimpled hands, the flying walker, Nawsee County, car broke, Big Wheel, Brownies, the flying shopping cart (oops), Girl Scouts, Flower girl, Strawberry Shortcake, Cabbage Patch dolls, My Child, Irish step dancing, Fundraising, Bell Ringer, Bingo carts, Candy striper, North Attleboro, Lector, MADD, Skiing (oops), KNOTB, My Girl, "time to sell the donuts," The Cure, Misses & Petites, braces, Boyz II Men, and RA.

We could think of no better place to put your pretty face and think of no better way to say how proud we are of you today.
So in this book of memories will go the "ABSOLUT" Dianne we've come to know.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATE!

To the Class of 1996

Well, it's over and I still can not decide whether to laugh or cry, a little of both I guess.

The past four years have been truly incredible. So much has happened that we may not know its true worth until we are able to look back years from now. Each person in the class of 1996 started in a different place and by some stroke of fate all crossed paths at the same time. I would personally like to thank each member of the class of 1996 for bringing his or her own uniqueness to Assumption. We became a large, but close knit family. As the song goes, from the senior slide show "I want to go back and do it all over, but I can't go back I know." I wish you all the luck in the world. It's been a blast. It has been a privilege to put together this book of memories. Enjoy.

Thanks for the Memories,
Julia M. Sullivan
